1-1 Training & Behaviour Consultations Policy

This service is aimed at helping people to overcome behaviour problems they are experiencing and or to train their dog, cat and small animals.

All behaviour consultation clients MUST have a veterinary health check and referral.

Hanne Grice Pet Training & Behaviour accepts no liability if any problems become worse or do not improve.

Hanne Grice Pet Training & Behaviour can only guide and give advice; it is the owner's responsibility to enforce changes.

Behaviour consultations and training sessions can be carried out at your home, on a walk, virtually or another suitable location, as agreed at the time of booking.

Assessment and treatments plans will be based upon qualified knowledge, current scientific theory, and experience. Suggestions for behaviour management will be provided during the assessment and a full written report will be supplied and sent by post, email, or in person within approximately 1-14 days.

Animal behaviour therapy can be integral to identifying causes of behaviour problems, to then develop a treatment plan to overcome these issues. In some cases, causes may not be identifiable and treatment plans may not be as effective as desired. Whilst this is unusual, those seeking behaviour therapies should be aware of this possibility. Implementing treatment plans may produce desired results quickly; however, time and commitment is required. This should always be considered as often a behaviour problem has spent a significant amount of time developing, therefore, your perception of treatment needs to reflect how long the issues have been manifesting for. Implementation remains, at all times, the responsibility of the owner. The pet's wellbeing, welfare, and actions are also the responsibility of the owner. Behaviour reports and treatment plans are created according to the information provided by the owner, the information gleaned on assessment, and information provided by referring veterinary surgeons. In any case full cooperation from the owner, including full disclosure of any/all problems being experienced, is needed. Withholding information can affect the plan, including withholding information regarding health matters. In any case, advice to seek veterinary assistance may be given, which should be a priority for the owner.

PLEASE ENSURE YOU PROVIDE FULL DISCLOSURE IN ANY CASES REGARDING HUMAN AGGRESSION. IN THIS CASE, SAFETY IS THE PRIORITY AND CAN NOT BE TAKEN LIGHTLY. FAILURE TO PROVIDE THIS INFORMATION MAY RESULT IN THE SERVICE BEING TERMINATED, ESPECIALLY WITH LOW OWNER COMMUNICATION.
